Senior Instructor: Kyoshi Penny Cheketri, a school teacher, with over 40 years of Martial Arts experience.

Penny has competed in the WGKF World Tournament in Malaysia in September 2019, winning a gold medal for individual kumite giving her the title of World champion and a silver medal for kata. She also won a gold medal at the 2018 Oceania competition and a gold medal in 2017 at WGKF world Tournament.

Penny has been awarded her 7th Dan Black belt and the title of Renshi in acknowledgement of her high standard of teaching and the title, Kyoshi meaning Teacher of Master, by Hanshi Ki'ichi Nakamoto. She travels to Okinawa in Japan to train with our Grandmaster.

She has also been awarded her 6th Dan Black Belt for Kobujutsu by Hanshi Ki'ichi Nakamoto and the title of Renshi. In Dentokan Goju Ryu she has been awarded her 6th Dan and in Dentokan Kobujutsu, she has 5th Dan and the titles of Shihan and Renshi. She has also attained her black belt in Aikijujutsu and Iaiado (Japanese sword). Penny trains weekly using Zoom with The Dentokan International and trains with them in person annually.

For those of you who know about the importance of Martial Arts Lineage, Penny is a direct student of Hanshi Teruo Chinen, Hanshi Ki'ichi Nakamoto and Hanshi Neil Malpas.
